

WHY JOIN A COMMITTEE

Adam R. Jonas
CPAR President

Committee service is a member benefit. CPAR's committees are a great forum for business opportunities, learning, networking, debate and discussion. Being on a committee allows you to contribute to the decision-making process, and gain experience beneficial for those seeking a leadership role. Participate in committees for an added-value from your membership. CPAR is here for your professional success.

Join a committee—and have fun!

CPAR

CPAR's Mission

The Central Pasco Association of REALTORS® was created as a trade association to provide information, education, and service to REALTORS® and affiliated members. We are pledged to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. Members work with America's property owners and act as a voice and a facility for professional development, research and exchange of information among its members and to the public, other professional organizations and government for the purpose of preserving the free enterprise system and the right to own real property.
