APRIL 2019 ISSUE 1

A LETTER FROM CHAIRPERSON VIVIA LAWSON

Welcome to the first ROCC Solid News, the latest step in the realization of the ROCC strategic plan for 2019 and 2020!

Over the past year ROCC leadership has transformed from a structure of monthly meetings with all decisions made solely by our board of directors to a work group framework which allows participation of all association members based on interests and skills. Work groups allow members to engage more deeply with other members with similar interests on projects that feel relevant, and participants are empowered to impact our association. We are wasting less time and getting more done.

AN INTRODUCTION BY HAYDEN MELLOP

Welcome to the first edition of ROCC Solid News, the quarterly newsletter that aims to keep you, the membership, up to date with the actions and activities of your Association staff and Board, and informed about events, opportunities and issues that affect you and your business.

Last year, the Board adopted a new strategic plan, with the aim of serving and supporting our members while inspiring excellence, thereby enhancing the communities we serve. You may have noticed the changes already...

ADVOCACY WORK GROUP UPDATE

Recently, the ROCC Board of Directors created an Advocacy work group. We are excited and can't wait to get to work! But what is Advocacy, anyway? Our goal is to keep up with issues relevant to our profession, and to serve as a conduit of information between you - our members - and local and state representatives to ensure that our interests are represented. Board President Vivia Lawson and Celia Adamec, together with ROCC CEO Kevan Lyons, recently attended the 2019 Realtor Day at the Capitol in Denver. An important part of our experience was a 2-hour training by RPAC, the Realtor® Political Action Committee. We learned a lot about where your annual $25 RPAC donation goes.
