

Steps to become a REALTOR® member with the High Country Association

- You must have a valid North Carolina Real Estate License
- Access to our MLS is either through application with an existing High Country MLS firm or by a new firm joining and paying the MLS initiation fee. All brokers must join both our Association and MLS to gain access to the MLS.
- There are three types of Association membership: Primary, Secondary and Board of Choice
 - Primary REALTOR® is if you have never been or are not now an active REALTOR® member
 - Secondary-In-State Member is if you are currently a REALTOR® member with another Association/Board within the State of North Carolina.
 - Secondary Out-of-State Member is if you are currently a REALTOR® member of another Association/Board in a state other than North Carolina.
 - Board of Choice is if you are currently a REALTOR® member in another Association/MLS and want to declare your primary board as your board of choice.
- If you are joining an existing High Country MLS firm, you must submit your completed application with fees to our office within 30 days of NCREC affiliation with the firm to comply with our by-laws.
- If you have your own firm, and are not a REALTOR® member or are currently a REALTOR® member of another Association/Board, and plan on joining our Association & MLS, every broker in the office must join the Association/MLS. You must submit completed application(s) with fees prior to the application deadline for the upcoming new member orientation.
