Thank you for your recent interest in joining the Pueblo Association of REALTORS, Inc.! The National Association of REALTORS, the Colorado Association of REALTORS and the Pueblo Association of REALTORS, Inc (PAR) changed their By-Laws to provide the opportunity for full membership to Certified Appraisers.

As a REALTOR Appraiser member, you are bound, as all other REALTOR members, to satisfy educational requirements as outlined in the Pueblo Association of REALTORS, inc. bylaws, Article IV; Section 2 Qualifications, paragraph (a), enclosed for your reference.

The required education courses are:

If you have already attended the GRI Ethics and Professional Practices course within the past 3 years in Colorado, you can obtain a waiver for this requirement by submitting a copy of your certificate of completion or a letter verifying your attendance. NOTE: The Appraisers Ethics class DOES NOT count as your PAR Ethics Requirement.

The Association's annual dues policy is established according to the number of persons with your firm who have a real estate license, or appraiser certificate or license. The annual dues for each Active Broker Member shall be in such amounts as established by the Board of Directors. Currently due are $526.00 per year - times the number of real estate licensees and licensed appraisers who are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such Designated Active Broker Member and are not themselves Active REALTORS. Credit is extended to the Active Broker Member for each licensee who voluntarily seeks and is granted Active REALTOR Membership in the association. All Licensees must be accounted for within one month following the due date of the Active Broker Member's dues. Please refer to the Pueblo Association of REALTORS, INC., and by-laws.

The Multiple Listing Service is an optional service offered by the Association to Designated REALTORS. If you elect to become an MLS Participant, you become personally responsible for payment of MLS invoices for your office and for compliance with the MLS Rules and Regulations by real estate licensees or certified or licensed appraisers, who are associated with your firm (See MLS Participation Agreement attached).

The Association's credit policy for multiple listing services are as follows: Monthly MLS invoices are sent at the end each month. Payment is required by the last day of every month. Should payment not
